Briscoe Protective Systems Inc. Promotes Two

November 29, 2016, Centereach, NY — Briscoe Protective Systems Inc. announced today that John Questel has been promoted to the position of Assistant Project Manager and Heather Hardwick has been promoted to the position of Assistant Supervisor of Accounting & Compliance.

Mr. Questel, a resident of Suffolk County, has served as Briscoe’s CAD Draftsman for the past two years. During that time he assisted Project Management in engineering & designing systems, developed & maintained shop risers and As Built diagrams, worked with sub contracted PE’s to ensure timely and accurate drawings, managed central station accounts, filled out and maintained AHJ documents, and expedited FDNY, NCFM, and Suffolk County AHJ filings. John will be responsible for attending project kickoff meetings, be the primary contact for his customer’s jobs, assist in site consults and programming, work with office personnel to develop training for field technicians and provide the latest AHJ Code and Manufacturer’s product updates. John completed his Electricians Training at the Naval Nuclear Power Training Command in the U. S. Navy and is currently pursuing a degree at SCCC.

Mrs. Hardwick, a resident of Suffolk County, has served as Briscoe’s Legal Assistant for the past year. During that time she was responsible for monthly sales tax calculations, invoicing customers, reviewing company vehicle paperwork, customer contractual PO’s, cash flow reports, setup of new customer information in the company database, and special projects. Heather will be responsible for overseeing and managing the accounts payable process, reviewing and entering all new contracts into the database, reviewing legal documents, overseeing any changes needed to standard agreements, and assisting the Director of Accounting & Compliance with additional tasks. Heather is a graduate of Hofstra University with her Bachelors in English.

“Both of these employees have shown that they are dedicated to Briscoe’s growth as a company, and I look forward to seeing them thrive in their new positions.”, said Robert Williams, President.
